CIDER

CIDRERIE DU VULCAIN
These are no ordinary Ciders! These fabulous ciders are full of life, energy and emotion.
Jacques Perritaz, the man behind La Cidrerie du Vulcain, works exclusively with the local orchard fruits of Fribourg: ancient varieties of apples, pears and quinces grown on high-branched, untreated trees. The ciders are always pure juice, fermented with their wild yeasts, only lightly filtered and only lightly sulfured at bottling time.
2015 Cidre Trois Pepins, Cidrerie du Vulcain	Fribourg, Che	110
2015 Cidre Transparente, Cidrerie du Vulcain	Fribourg, Che	97
ERIC BORDELET
In 1992, Eric Bordelet, a sommelier who trained in some of Paris' top restaurants, returned to southern Normandy to take over his family's estate and orchards. At the core of Eric's estate are three hectares of ancient, heirloom varieties of apple and pear trees that are 40-50 years old. His organic estate has now grown to around 10 Hectares of pure varietal trees, which are balanced between sweet, bitter and sour taste profiles. Currently, he works with 20 varieties of apples and 14 types of pears—a true master of his craft who is eager to revive the less well-known varieties.
